A [] telephoned this morning. He was at one time with the FBI in New York and is now with Prudential Bache, New York. He has had a conversation with [] about a matter which he thinks is extremely interesting and would be helpful to you "with the elections coming up". He did not give the details to [] -- only discussed in general.

He would like an appointment to see you and will come down from New York for this purpose.

He indicated that he does not wish to discuss it on the telephone. Would you like to try this tack first or shall I set up an appointment?
